Keeping your team happy, healthy and connected

What is Kaido?

Kaido is the employee wellbeing and team-building experience that keeps your teams feeling happy, healthy and connected. It is perfect for remote and hybrid teams.

How does Kaido work?

Kaido gives you the ability to run fun, inclusive, companywide health and wellbeing challenges across your business. These team based initiatives support your colleagues to look after their physical and mental health in a fun and interactive way, whilst benefitting from the important social support of their colleagues.

How will Kaido benefit my company?

Kaido provides your employees with the tools and social support they need to proactively and sustainably manage their physical and mental health, whilst supporting you as a business to drive engagement, boost morale and keep teams connected.

1000s of hybrid teams from companies around the world have benefitted from the Kaido programme in the last 12 months, including teams from Google, HSBC, The Department of Health and Social Care and Murphy Group.

Book your free, no obligation Product Tour with a member of the Kaido team today, and learn how Kaido can help keep your team healthy, engaged and connected in 2021.
